General Comment

My husband worked hard all his life to support our family and provide for our retirement. We didn't live the fancy life most politicians do. We scrimped and saved. We did with out including medical care. My husband sacrificed his health to earn our way in life. We have done just fine on our own and we do not want any one telling us how we must live or spend our money. We earned it. It is ours. The government and powers that be, can't even run the governments finances. With all due respect please leave our money alone. Also, please leave all retirement funds alone.
